The Law of Yachts and Yachting
Filippo Lorenzon and Richard Coles

Written by a team of leading practitioners and researchers, The Law of Yachts and Yachting covers the legal issues that could arise during the life of a professionally crewed superyacht from conception to scrap yard. It is a practitioner’s book, to be used by lawyers and professionals involved in all aspects of superyacht operations, including; design, construction, financing, registration, charter, insurance and compliance.

Specialist contributors include: Graeme Bowtle, Nigel Cooper QC, James Gopsill, Richard Shaw, Professor Mikis Tsimplis, and Pawel Wysocki
