

In person at Marine Claims Edinburgh 2021

Andrew Gray, Director and Master Mariner, and Richard Guy, Senior Associate at CJC attended Marine Claims Edinburgh between 29 September and 1 October 2021, joining the conference staged as an in-person event for the first time in two years.

A great event in the centre of the city, Marine Claims Edinburgh included a programme comprising interesting and comprehensive presentations on a number of aspects of marine claims over two days. The well-attended conference was held as an in-person event for the first time since 2019.

Andrew Gray took part in a lively panel discussion on casualties and collisions on day one, with 2021 providing many large casualties to consider, including the Ever Given grounding and the devastating fire on board X-Press Pearl. This session included an overview of major claims, and a discussion of how the industry might adapt to prevent such events in future.

The conference was followed by a drinks reception on the first evening on board the Royal Yacht Britannia at Ocean Terminal, Leith, and a dinner and Scottish cèilidh on the second.
